

Advice to Students When Selecting Their Subjects

- Before you consider which subjects to select, research a range of university and career options so that the subjects you select satisfy the entry requirements.
- Use <https://www.careerpilot.org.uk/> to help you identify the pathway required to your chosen university or career.
- Think about which subjects are prerequisites for further study or your career path.
- Ensure that you have the correct number and combination of A level or BTEC subjects to satisfy any university or career requirements prior to application.
- Think about which subjects you enjoy now but also consider new subjects you haven't experienced before but which sound interesting.
- Prioritise your subjects in order of interest and value to you.
- Decide how you are going to organise your subjects across the two years.
